

KNOWLEDGE TRANSFER

The Predictive Index offers an advanced curriculum of instructor-led management training workshops that ensure the PI Methodology is integrated deep into the cultural fabric of your organization.

PROFESSIONAL SERIES

What Drives People?

PI FUNDAMENTALS

This is an introductory crash-course in all things PI, with the essentials to get your team started. Decode employee drives, understand their motivating needs, and consider how these play out in the workplace.

For all levels

HALF DAY

Managing People to Perform

This workshop shows you how to better manage your team members by realizing a path toward clear communication and understanding how to play into each of their core strengths to drive crazy performance.

For Managers

FULL DAY

Included: What Drives People?

Attracting and Selecting Top Performers

This workshop brings you through the steps necessary to define and artfully craft a job description, how to attract the best-fitting candidates, and how to select and hire the the ideal candidate.

For Hiring Managers, Recruiters, and HR Professionals

FULL DAY

Included: What Drives People?

Becoming a PI Practitioner

Our intensive two-day Practitioner Workshop provides the insights you'll need to solve the business challenges you grapple with every day by uncovering the people challenges that lie behind them. You'll get hands-on practice with PI tools to transform the way you view the roles in your organization, select top talent and build employee engagement.

For Future PI Practitioners

2 DAY

Included: Managing People to Perform What Drives People?